Re: William Gil-Londono v. Michael B. Mukasey, et al.
Civil Action No. 07-6051(PGS)
Hearing Scheduled for 10:00 am August 1, 2008

Dear Judge Sheridan:

I write to advise the Court that there has been a significant development in this immigration habeas matter. I have just learned that yesterday, July 30, 2008, Judge Manahan in Morristown vacated a conviction of the petitioner, and that the petitioner has plead guilty to a different charge.

This development may have a significant effect on the removal order that petitioner is detained under, and may also change his detention status and entitlement to bail and/or release, which would make this matter moot and obviate the need for the Court's further consideration. I ask the Court to postpone the hearing in this matter for one week so that I may confer with my client. I thank Your Honor for your consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted:

CHRISTOPHER J. CHRISTIE
United States Attorney
